

Huygens' Principle:

Each wavefront is the envelope of the wavelets. Each point on a wavefront acts as an independent source to generate wavelets for the next wavefront. AB and CD are two wavefronts.